ANIMAL ARMOR

OPENING SEPTEMBER 20 AT THE PUTNAM MUSEUM

Reach thousands of visitors from across the region by aligning your business with our beloved community institution. You'll receive meaningful recognition on exhibit signage and digital platforms.

Ceremonially Adopt an Armored Animal

Choose one of the animals, featured in the exhibit, to sponsor. Your ceremonial adoption includes:

- A personalized plaque displayed near your adopted animal
- Recognition on the Putnam's website
- A certificate of adoption and photo of your animal
- Opportunities to share your sponsorship story on social media

MEET THE ANIMALS

SCUTELLOSAURUS

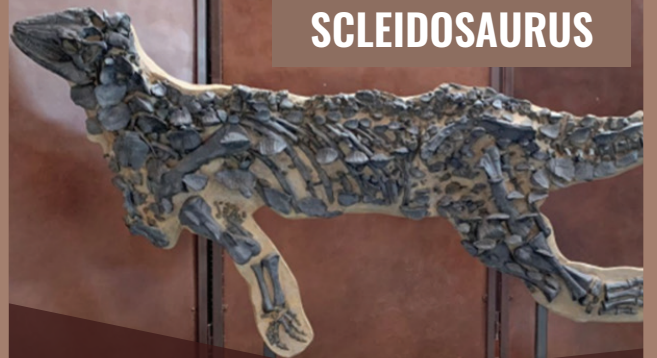

Small But Mighty.

I may only be 4ft long, but don't underestimate me; I've got armor, balance, and style. My tail? Pure elegance and engineering. I'm fast, light, and always down for a desert stroll. Looking for a dino that's low-key, low-drama, and high-style? It's me. I'm the one.

SCLEIDOSAURUS

British, Bony, and Ready To Brunch.

Straight outta Jurassic England, I'm armored, elegant, and only slightly judgmental. At 13ft long, I'm a polite plant-eater with tasteful rows of scutes and impeccable fossil form. Sponsor me if you like your dinos with a dash of class and a side of sass.

AKAINACEPHALUS

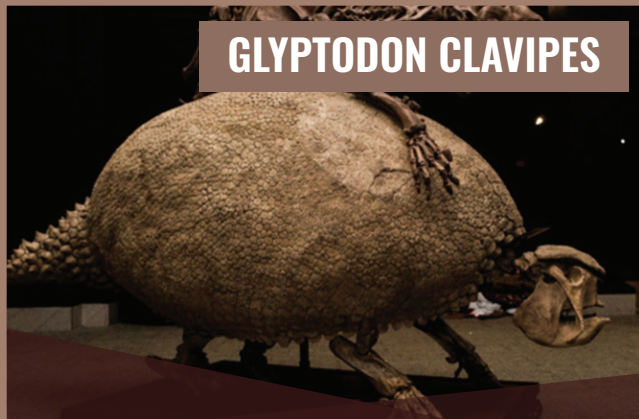

Heavy-Tailed Sweetheart Seeks Sponsor With A Soft Spot For Spikes!

Hi. I'm 76 million years old, plant-based, and built like a medieval tank. I've got a club for a tail (literally), and while I may look like a bouncer, I'm just here to graze in peace. I used to share the land with duck-billed dinos and tyrannosaurs—so yeah, I earned this armor. Sponsor me, and I'll be your personal prehistoric bodyguard.

GLYPTODON CLAVIPES

Slow. Round. Surprisingly Huggable.

Think of me as a VW Beetle with legs and an anxiety shell. I may not be fast (or alive anymore), but I made it through the Ice Age by being absolutely unbothered. My body is made of bony plates. My vibes are immaculate. I could use a sponsor who appreciates the quiet giants of the world.

SPONSOR ME FOR $750

HEDGEHOG

Spiky on the Outside. Snacky on the Inside.

I'm the original emo woodland creature—nocturnal, introverted, and covered in keratin couture. I roll up when life gets tough (same?). Sponsor me if you love a small mammal with a big personality and a 'don't touch me' aesthetic.

CRESTED PORCUPINE

Hair? Don't Care. Quill Me Once...

Biggest porcupine on Earth. Also, the most stylish. I don't throw my quills, but I do make a lasting impression. Sponsor me if you love drama, defense, and a flair for the fabulous.

SPONSOR ME FOR $750

DUNKLEOSTEUS

Jawline for Days. Appetite for Drama.

I'm a 30-foot, armor-plated sea monster with bone-crushing jaws and zero chill. If it moved, I ate it. If it didn't move, I still considered it. Some call me the original apex predator. Others call me a nightmare. You? You can call me yours.

SCUTOSAURUS

Tank. Herbivore. Built Like a Brick House.

I'm 8ft long, a literal ton of muscle and armor, and I only eat plants. That's right, I crush stereotypes and vegetation. Sponsor me if you want a gentle giant with linebacker vibes.

PARRINGTONIA

Rare. Mysterious. Kinda Spooky.

Known from just one fossil, I'm the elusive cryptid of the Triassic. Carnivorous, armored, and full of secrets. Sponsor me if you believe in loving the weird ones.

SPONSOR ME FOR $500

PHYTOSAUR

"Crocs Walked So I Could Stomp."

I'm an armored, semi-aquatic OG with nostrils near my eyes (don't ask). I ruled the Triassic swamps before crocodiles were cool. Sponsor me if you appreciate ancient innovation with serious bite.

SPONSOR ME FOR $750

DEINOSUCHUS

T.Rex Is Afraid of Me.

Crushing jaws. Spiked back. Big bad gator vibes. At 35ft long, I didn't just survive—I dominated. Sponsor me if you want to say you backed the baddest beast in the Cretaceous creek.

SPONSOR ME FOR $1,000

SARCOSUCHUS

Jurassic Park Who?

I'm a 30ft dinosaur-snacking machine with armor like a tank tread and a skull built for drama. Sponsor me if you love over-the-top reptiles with serious prehistoric flair.

SPONSOR ME FOR $1,000

GIANT PACIFIC CLAM

Clam Down—I'm A Gentle Giant.

I live for 100 years, hang out in coral reefs, and absorb sunlight like a pro. Sponsor me if you love quiet beauty and low-drama mollusks with staying power.

SPONSOR ME FOR $750

SABER-TOOTHED TIGER

Muscle Cat. Mega Fangs. Main Character Energy.

I'm not your average kitty. I'm 1,000 lbs of Ice Age apex, with the forearms of a wrestler and saber teeth that say, "I go first." Sponsor me if you're into power, poise, and prehistoric perfection.
